

EVERYONE TALKS ABOUT THE WEATHER, BUT
JESUS IS THE ONLY ONE WHO EVER DID ANYTHING
ABOUT IT Mark 4:35-41

#1- It wasn't just that He wanted them to learn to handle a crisis on their own- He wanted them to look for Him in a crisis and _____

#2- What big event had taken place shortly before this? The religious leaders accused Jesus of using _____

#3- This is a man who can tell storms to be quiet. So the guy they've left the religious leaders for turned out to be _____

#4- For most of us it's being able to answer this question- Has knowing Jesus _____?

#5- Our evidence that we made the right choice isn't a miracle. Instead it's _____ vs. 35-37- The disciples were in a crisis, and were terrified. Has there ever been a time you felt like this and God pulled you through? Tell your story.

Has there ever been a time where God didn't pull you though? How did you come to terms with that? Did it affect your faith? If so, how?

How would you answer this question: Did you make the right choice in following Jesus? Why? How has it changed your life?

What misconceptions do you think the world has about the choice to follow Jesus? How do you answer those misconceptions?

It's easy to say Jesus is the right choice, but life doesn't always work out. Why do you think bad things happen to good people and good things happen to bad people?

For you, what has been the best part about following Jesus?

Define happiness. Is it different for believers and non believers? How?
